

Thank you to everyone that auditioned. An incredible group of talented people came out for auditions and callbacks!

A few things to keep in mind:

1. As mentioned for callbacks, casting is a giant jigsaw puzzle! If you are not cast, please remember that your value as a performer is not determined by whether you are cast. EVERYONE should be proud of the thoughtfulness, humor, and creativity they brought to this process. Thank you for putting yourself out there and giving it your best.
2. For those cast, please expect that Claire Simpson (director) or Merit Glover (stage manager) will reach out to you next week via the email listed on your audition form. Please be diligent in checking that!
3. Our first rehearsal is Monday, January 27th from 6-9pm at Studio 52.
4. Four of the roles have been double-cast. Actors with an "O" next to their name will play the role from opening until mid-way through the run. At that point, "O" will switch tracks with the fellow ensemble member that is designated with the letter "C." This actor will play the part through to closing. "O" will finish the run as ensemble.
